

HAUTE HANDBAGS

This season's must-have accessory: a carryall. BY DALENE ROVENSTINE

Clutches and dainty handbags have their place. But a versatile carryall will help chic Aspenites transition from day to night to weekend with ease. Maison Ullens's ready-to-travel line features three leather handbag varieties: a working bag ($2,630), a traveling tote ($3,380), and a cabin bag ($4,630)—all simple yet stylish enough to bring straight from the office to after-work drinks at The Little Nell. All three bags are made of baranil leather and come in black or gold for ultimate wearability. To make a bolder statement, try the Fendi By the Way handbag (BELOW, $1,450) in either eye-popping red or brilliant blue. Wear as a handbag or cross-body bag, and opt to personalize by selecting hand-painted python, shearing, or crocodile accents. Maison Ullens, 445 E.
